

Celebrating The Life Of Rocky Wayne Leeman

February 22, 1943
February 18, 2023

Rocky Wayne Leeman was born February 22, 1943, in Tacoma, Washington, the son of Warren and Olga (Olson) Leeman. He grew up in various places, but ended up calling Hudson, South Dakota home. Rocky worked in different professions from running heavy equipment, to roofing, and farming with his brother-in-law and nephews.

Rocky married Susie Anderson on September 6, 1985, and with that union he gained 5 stepchildren. He enjoyed fishing, gardening, driving his 1965 Buick wildcat, and being with his family. Rocky lived life to the fullest.

Rocky passed away peacefully with family present on Saturday, February 18, 2023, at Alcester Care and Rehab in Alcester, South Dakota at the age of 79.

Rocky is survived by Susie Leeman of Hudson, South Dakota; daughter, Jodi (Daryl) Worm of Jasper, Indiana; 2 stepsons, Jeff (Heather) Brandt of Buffalo Center, Iowa and Nick (LaDawn) Brandt of Hudson; 2 brothers, Warren "Buddy" Leeman of Garretson, South Dakota and Jerry Marquardt of Garland, Texas; and many nieces, nephews, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren.

Rocky was preceded in death by his parents, Warren and Olga; 2 brothers, Gary and Tommy Marquardt; sister, Kay Osterkamp and her husband Earl; 3 stepchildren, Jim Purdie, Lori Willette, and Steve Brandt; great-granddaughter, Madelyn Brandt; sister-in-law, Donna Leeman; and his pug, Sassy.

ROCKY WAYNE LEEMAN

MEMORIAL SERVICE

2:00 p.m. Saturday, February 25, 2023
Porter Funeral Home
Hawarden, Iowa

SPECIAL MUSIC

"My Old Man" Zac Brown Band
"Lead Me Home" Jamey Johnson
"Jealous Of The Angels" Donna Taggert
"I Wish Grandpa's Never Died" Riley Green
"Give Heaven Some Hell" Hardy