Dear Parents,

We have had a great week! Mrs. K's room celebrated ancient Greece this week. They were able to experience the spirit of the Olympics. They tasted Greek food, and some students even wore togas! Mrs. Simpson's bunch started learning about weather! They talked about the atmosphere. Ask them what the atmosphere does for the Earth.

Thank you parents for helping with snow day assignments. Those who completed their assignments, had an easier time in school this week. Those in Mrs. Simpson's room must have their assignments in by Jan. 29th. After that date a zero will be recorded for those assignments.
