

Breakout Sessions for Adventist Theological Society, Sabbath, November 21, 2015

Time	Breakout A – Old Testament	Breakout B - New Testament	Breakout C – Theology and History	Breakout D – Other Approaches
2:00- 2:30 p.m.	Ronald Rojas - The Husband-Wife Relationship In Scripture: An Overview	Laurențiu Florentin Moț - Shortness of Time and Being Married as if You Are Not	Christopher R. Mwashinga - Marriage and the Family: How the understanding of the doctrine of salvation impacts spirituality	Stacie Hattfield – Marriage: Spiritual Insights from an Anthropological Perspective
2:40- 3:10 p.m.	Erick Mendieta - Adam as Father and Representative of the Human Family and its Soteriological Implications	Davidson Razafiarivony - Marriage and Sexual Obligations according to Paul in 1 Corinthians 7:1-7.”	Michael W. Campbell - Ellen G. White, the Cult of Domesticity, and the Sacred Duty of Family	Eriks Galieniks - The Phenomenon and Challenges of Polygamy: A Practical Dilemma for the Seventh-day Adventist Church in Africa
3:20- 3:50 p.m.	Michael F. Younker – The Significance of Ellen White’s Commentary on Genesis 4:7 for Interpreting the Psychology of Genesis 3:16	Adriani Milli Rodrigues - Marriage and the Theology of Hebrews: A Theological Reading of Heb 12:28 - 13:6 with a focus on Marriage	Gonzalo L. Pita - Characteristics of the Waldensian Family in the Middle-Ages and Early Modern Times: their Influence on the Movement’s Perdurance and Growth	Jan Sigvartsen – Millenials, Marriage, and Family