

OBITUARY

Chanito passed away Monday, July 15, 2024, in Alvarado. He was born May 30, 1972, in Dallas to Marciano and Odulia (Lopez) Martinez. Chanito married Kristy Ray on August 18, 2006, in Alvarado. He dedicated 30 years of his life to a successful career as an independent truck driver. Chanito loved to drive and enjoyed the journey. During his travels he loved to photograph his trips to capture the memories. His strong ethic, reliability, and unwavering determination was what defined his character. Family meant everything to Chanito, and he took joy in spending time with his loved ones. He enjoyed music, loved playing the guitar, and exploring various other instruments. Chanito loved movies, and going on beach vacations to Galveston and Destin, Florida. Another favorite place of his was Pagosa Springs, Colorado. A thrill-seeker at heart, Chanito loved to push his limits through activities like bungee jumping and indulging in the super race car experience in Cresson. His zest for life extended to his love for parties and making the most of every moment. Chanito adored his grandchildren immensely and found pure joy in their presence. He was quick to kill imaginary sharks or jump your ass! He was known for his playful nature and mischievous spirit both in childhood and adulthood. He approached life with a sense of fun and curiosity. Chanito's way was the right way and he let you know it. Chanito had a deep admiration for his dad's "1972" Charger. Chanito's presence will be dearly missed by all those who had the privilege of knowing him. May he rest in peace knowing that his spirit will forever be remembered by those whose lives he touched.

Survivors include his wife, Kristy Martinez; sons, Trey Humphries and his wife, Jolynn, Greg Luke, and Anthony Martinez; grandsons, Caleb Humphries, and Kayden Humphries; mother, Odulia Centeno and husband, Jorge; father, Marciano M. Martinez; brothers, Adam Martinez, and Jorge Eric Centeno; many loving cousins, friends and family.

“Wildflowers”

*You belong among the wildflowers,
You belong in a boat out at sea,
Sail away, kill off the hours,
You belong somewhere you feel free.*
~Tom Petty

“Under Your Scars”

*Scars come in all forms.
They are both physical and emotional.
We are all imperfect in some way,
that's what makes us perfect & unique!*
~Sully Erna, Godsmack
