

Our Little Messenger

November, 2018

Irrigon Seventh-day Adventist Church

#11-2018

This month as you celebrate around the table I hope the remembrance of God's blessings continue to remind you throughout the year that God is in control, that He will continue to bless our lives until that day when we get to see Him face to face.

Pastor Brian, Terra, Simon, & Leah

November 3rd marks the day Terra, Simon and Leah drove up from Vale, Oregon and met me at the title company to close on our new home. I still remember with fondness sleeping on the floor for a couple days until the moving truck caught up with us. November also marks the month we celebrate Thanksgiving and all of God's blessings in our lives. This year our family has so much for which we are thankful.

God has blessed our household with a new member; Terra's dad came to live with us in July. God has blessed us with a wonderful home and an amazing view of His creation. Most of all we are so thankful for our new church families that have been such a blessing in our lives.

This is such a special time of year because it reminds us of the mind frame we ought to always have. It can be so easy to focus on the challenges that we face and the uncertainties of the future. Thanksgiving helps us to remember that though we may face difficulties, the same God who has blessed us in the past continues to bless us each day.
