

Victor Roob was born on June 29, 1948, at the Wheaton Hospital the son of Ambrose and Brigetta (Wieser) Roob. He graduated from Rosholt High School Class of 1967. Following his graduation Victor served his country in the United States Army during the Vietnam War. He was honorably discharged in 1970.

After serving his country Victor attended Alexandria Technical College and received his Accounting Degree. He later obtained his Contractors license. In 1977, he met Marjorie (Zastrow) Karger and the couple was married on April 26, 1980. They lived in Alexandria where Victor owned and operated Roob Construction. On May 14, 1994 the couple renewed their vows.

Throughout his life he loved camping, golf, chess, bowling, fishing and hunting with family and friends. Victor enjoyed making venison summer sausage and jerky. After Marjorie's death in 2006, Victor remained in Alexandria overseeing the different construction projects. He loved work and wasn't a guy that could sit around. In 2011, he moved to Hawaii after he dissolved his construction company. Victor was a man that had to work and one day while walking the beach he started picking up recyclables and began a new recycling business in Maui. He continued staying active playing frisbee golf and softball. He looked forward to his weekly poker games with friends.

Victor died suddenly as a result of injuries from a moped accident on December 10, 2020. He is survived by his son Brett Hay. Step kids: Roxane (Jack) Westergren, Jessie Karger, Steven (Shelly) Karger, Jennifer (Chris) Thomas; 10 grandchildren, 12 great grandchildren, brothers; Vincent (twin), Lawrence, Paul, Clarence Roob; sisters; Anna Mae Woltman, Barbara Brockhaus, Helen Maciej, Marie Schmitt.

I'm Free

*Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free,
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took his hand when I heard his call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work, to play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I've found that peace at the close of the day.

If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things I too will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My Life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch,
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.*
