CLINICS

Squash basics; on court

Refereeing Squash

Squash administration

Squash basics; on court

This clinic will focus on players wanting to improve their racquet skills, court craft and consistency of shot-making, including such things as;

- Racquet grip, stance and movement around the court
- Solo and group training skill and fitness drills
- Court etiquette

Refereeing Squash

Refereeing a fast-moving game in a confined space requires a good knowledge of the rules, confidence in decision-making, and application of the rules not only for fairness but critically, for player safety. Participants will taken through;

- Complementary roles of the Marker and Referee
- Various scenarios where no let, let or stroke apply
- Applying the rules for player safety
- Players' rights of appeal, injury time, penalties
- Court etiquette
- The referee training and accreditation resources

Squash administration

Like all volunteer run sports Squash is always looking to engage participants in the organisation and running of its tournaments and pennants. This presentation will provide an overview of the processes, roles, tools and tricks of running Squash tournaments and pennants.

- SportyHQ, AMSA ranking, match formats
- roles: Director, Front Desk, etc
- Governing bodies, approvals, liability & insurance
- Arranging functions, catering
