The Obituary

Nellie Gray Foy Parker, 79, of Suffolk, VA entered eternal rest on Wednesday, January 18, at Sentara Obici Hospital in Suffolk, Virginia. Nellie was born on September 3, 1944, in Johnston County, NC to the late Menzy Sims and Eddie Foy. She attended Richard B. Harrison High School. She married the late ISG(Ret) Leamon L. Parker on January 8, 1979 in Fayetteville, NC.

Nellie Gray was outgoing, fashionable and enjoyed simple pleasures; spending time with her family and friends and traveling. She had an uncanny ability to leave a lasting impression, and everyone admired her beauty.

She is preceded in death by her husband, son Reginald M. Barnes (LeKeisha), daughter Shelia G. Barnes, and son Milton E. Barnes, granddaughter LaKisha R. O'Neal, brother Graham Foye, sister Katie McCullers, parents, and grandparents.

Nellie is survived by a son Roger D. Barnes of Greensboro, NC; two daughters Penny J. Peacock of Raleigh, NC and Velvet L. Parker of Suffolk, VA; one goddaughter Bianca A. Foye of Greensboro, NC; 14 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren; three sisters Elouise Brown of NYC and Adell Foy of Colonial Beach, VA, and Diane Foye of Selma, NC; one brother Elijah Foy (Eva) of Atlanta, GA; one brother-in-law Chief Petty Officer (Ret) James T. Parker of Chesapeake, VA and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
