

“I’m Comin’ Home”

By: Robert Earl Keen

*Packed my suitcase and I racked my brain
Bought a ticket on a late night train
Took a taxi through the pourin' rain
I'm comin' home to you*

*Flew from Boston out to San Jose
Saw our old friends in Monterey Bay
When they asked me if I'd like to stay
I said I'm comin' home to you*

*I'm comin' home
Made up my mind that's what I'm gonna do
Can't love nobody on the telephone
I'm comin' home to you*

*They threw a party there from dusk 'till dawn
Seems like everybody knows old sleepy John
He said next time I better bring you along
I'm comin' home to you*

*They had fresh caught salmon on the bareques
There were people jammin' all night to the blues
Life is good out in Santa Cruz but
I'm comin' home to you*

*I drove forever out to God knows where Come ten-thirty there was no one there
They couldn't pay me but I didn't care
I'm comin' home to you*

*I'm feelin' better since I got your card
I read it over and over when the road gets hard
Ain't nothin' better than your own backyard
I'm comin' home to you*

*I'm comin' home
Made up my mind that's what I'm gonna do
Can't love nobody on the telephone
I'm comin' home to you*

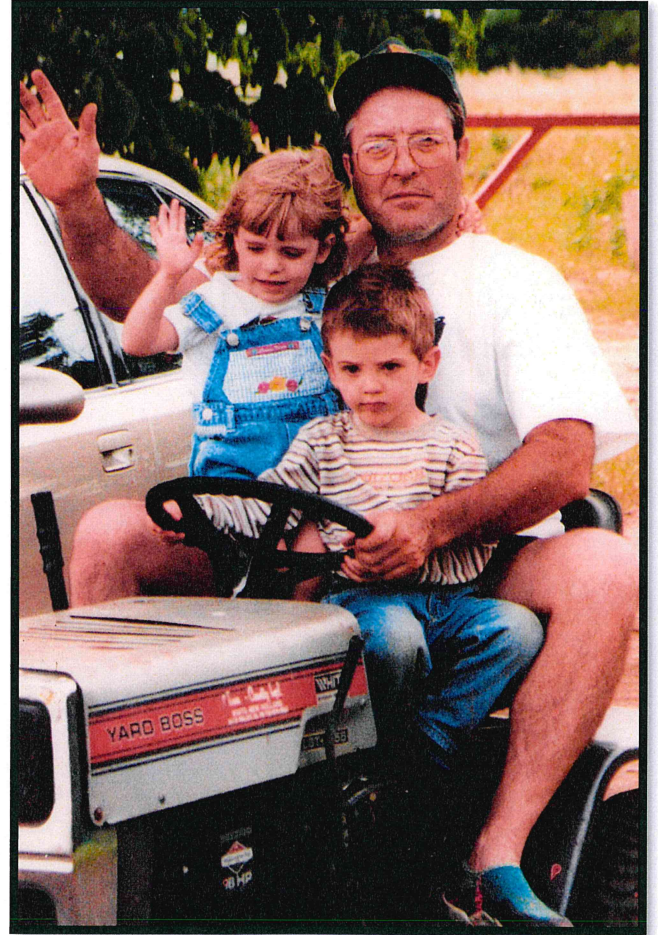

Steve Douglas Homandberg, son of John Nels Olaf Homandberg and Delores Leone (Hamilton) Homandberg, was born May 19, 1955, in Pipestone, Minnesota. He graduated from Hudson High School in 1973.

Steve was a man of many interests and hobbies. Prior to starting his own construction business, Steve and his family operated Homandberg Oil and farmed for many years. When he wasn't working, Steve loved to hunt, fish, and teach others how to do the same. He was also passionate about live music and traveling and enjoyed taking trips with his life-long friends, Tim and Tom Christensen. In his later years, Steve enjoyed spending time working on numerous projects on his farm with Nancy Krumm and their dog, Ruthie. Steve passed away while under the care of hospice at his home on Tuesday, October 03, 2023 at the age of 68.

Steve is survived by his former spouse Denise (Smith) Vant Hof of Hudson, South Dakota and their 4 children, Matt Homandberg (Kelli Cline) of Hudson, South Dakota, Mike (Shanna) Homandberg of Fort Walton Beach, Florida, Chris Homandberg (Diana Gama Salmeron) of Los Angeles, California, and Katie Homandberg (Savannah Slate) of Honolulu, Hawaii; 4 siblings, Mark Homandberg of Garretson, South Dakota, Tracy (Barb) Homandberg of Hudson, South Dakota, Nancy (Butch) Forsythe of Akron, Iowa and Jean (Dean) Doty of Alcester, South Dakota; 7 grandchildren, Rylee, Cole, Marley, Sophie, Hayden, Ian and Lucas; special friend Nancy Krumm; and many nieces and nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Delores; and infant brother, Michael Scott Homandberg.
