

Jesse Ray Urban was born in Dickinson on February 5, 1995, the son of Jeff and Naomi (Hlibichuk) Urban. He grew up in Belfield and graduated from Belfield High School in 2013. Following graduation he worked various jobs until he started working for BOE as an operator. He loved his job and he was loved at his workplace. Jesse was a caring, faith-filled young man. He loved God and his faith was very important to him. He was also passionate about animals, always caring for his dog and two cats. Jesse loved electronics and built his own computer from scratch. He enjoyed days playing guitar, swimming, gaming, reading and he owned a good collection of books. Jesse enjoyed life and loved teasing others, just like his dad Jeff. Family was one of his greatest blessings and people were important to him. He blessed the lives of many with his big caring heart. Jesse will be dearly missed and forever loved. Jesse is survived by his mother, Naomi Urban; brother, Robert (Ashley) Urban; nephew, Noah and baby on the way; grandparents, Bob and Eva Hlibichuk; girlfriend, Jessica Underwood; several aunts, uncles and cousins. He was preceded in death by his father, Jeff Urban; grandparents, Bill and Ellen Urban.

Jesus said,

“Let not your heart, be troubled: you believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father’s house are many rooms; if it were not so would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And when I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, that where I am you may be also. And you know the way I am going.”

“I am the way, and the truth, and the life; no one comes to the Father, but by me.”

“Because I live, you will live also.”

John 14: 1-6, 19
