Jean is her name
Hard work is her game

A mother proud to be
And a lady you see

Very nice to meet
In which was a treat

As I only say
Just what I may

So right or wrong
To you they do
Belong

God must have known there would be times
We'd need a word of cheer,
Someone to praise a triumph
or brush away a tear,
He must have known we'd need to share
The joy of "little things"
In order to appreciate
The happiness life brings.
I think he knew our troubled hearts
Would sometimes throb with pain
At trials and misfortunes
Or some goal we can't attain
He knew we'd need the comfort
Of an understanding heart
To give us strength & courage
To make a fresh new start
He knew we'd need companionship
Unselfish... lasting... true,
And so God answered the hearts' great need
With cherished friends... like you
