Words of Love

Mom, I will always remember and miss when you called me moo moo and always made me happy. I will always love you.

-Your youngest son, Bralon

Mom, everything you taught me, I will never forget. I miss you so much and love you. I hear your voice all the time. You don't have to worry, we got this and I love you with all my heart.

-Phillip

Mom, me and Kaiden love you so much. We miss you. It's gonna be hard for us to live this life knowing you have moved on with the lord, but I know you will always be with me & him watching over us from up above. I'll never forget the laughs we had, everything you taught me, and the love you gave. You raised me to be so strong and I thank you for that.

-Love your daughter, Jalayna and your Munchy

Obituary

Katrina was born on September 29, 1967 to Frank Stockard and Eloise Cavaness, in the city of River Rouge along with six loving brothers and sisters—Ladon, Frank, Valerie, Cynthia, Deborah and Veanus. She immediately brought joy and laughter into the world. She was a sweet and loving person, who did not hold her tongue. She graduated High School from Southwestern, Detroit, Michigan. Katrina also loved to sing. Even as a child, she sang in the Choir at New MT. Herman Baptist Church.

In 1995, Katrina met Phillip and the two were inseparable. From that point on, Katrina and Phillip got married on April 18th, 1996 and were married for over 25 years. They had 3 children—Phillip, Jalayna, and Bralon. Katrina was a fiercely dedicated mom to all of her children. Family came first above anything else. Katrina loved reading James Patterson books and spending time with her only Grandchild, Kaiden.
