Mothers Never Die

*You have never lost your mother,
Though you've said your last goodbyes,
Though there's heartbreak in the parting.*

No one's mother really dies.

If you love to hear the old songs for memories they bring,

It's because you had a mother who had taught your heart to sing.

*If you stop to help a neighbor,
Search your heart and you will find,*

It's because you had a mother who's taught you to be kind.

*If you go to church when weary,
Seeking God to guide our way,*

It's because you had a mother who's taught you how to pray

No, you've never lost your mother,

*Though you've said your last goodbyes,
Through your thoughts and deeds she's living.*

No one's mother really dies.
