

Edith Wolf was born in Belfield on December 13, 1928, the daughter of Frank and Barbara (Wagner) Ouelette. As a young girl, she spent a few years in the Belfield area before she moved to Montana with her family and finished school. Edith married Edwin Wolf on October 20, 1948 in Belfield. The couple moved to the Pete Eberts farm southeast of Belfield where they raised their three children and farmed until 1992. At that time, Edith and Edwin made the move to their final home in Belfield. Edith enjoyed farm life and getting through all of its challenges with faith and hope. She worked a few years at Trappers Kettle & Hotel in Belfield and she enjoyed cooking and gardening. Edith cherished her Adoration Holy Hour at St. Bernard's parish for many years. She was also a member of the American Legion Auxiliary and the May Guild. Edith will be remembered for her loving and caring spirit that persevered through many lifetime trials. She always cared for and lived by the mantra "there is good in everyone". Edith is survived by her daughters, Michele Hoff of Bismarck, Carla (Ed) Shypkoski of Dickinson; four grandchildren, Darik (Claire) Hoff of Seattle, WA, Dilan (Carra) Hoff of Plymouth, MN; Jared (Chelsea Jones) Shypkoski of Dickinson, Bryce (Amanda Fitzsimmons) Shypkoski of Dickinson; eight great-grandchildren, Harrison, Violet, Emrey, Abbie, Rayah, Edison, Ruby and Hemingway. She preceded in death by her parents, Frank and Barbara Ouelette; husband, Edwin (2005); son, Daryl; sisters, Melrose Vokal and Betty Huschka.

In Loving Memory

Edith Wolf

December 13, 1928 - January 16, 2024

God looked around his garden
 And he found an empty place
 He then looked down upon his earth
 And saw your tired face.
 He put his arms around you
 And lifted you to rest
 God's garden must be beautiful
 He always takes the best.
 He knows that you were suffering
 He knew you were in pain
 He knew that you would never
 Get well on earth again.
 He saw the road was getting rough
 And the hills are hard to climb.
 So he closed your weary eyelids,
 And whispered "Peace be Thine"
 It broke our hearts to lose you
 But you didn't go alone
 For part of us went with you
 The day God called you home.
