Chicago member who charmed the world has died; Faith lessons from the Civil Rights Movement; Children's Ministry and Pathfinder Leadership Training world has died

Three years ago we brought you the moving story of Fidencio Sanchez. Sanchez, at 90, was photographed pushing a vending cart in Chicago's Little Village neighborhood. It was a photo which went viral around the world and was responsible for a GoFundMe account created to help the struggling grandfather. Donations poured in and over the course of 10 days more than $380,000 was raised. Now, after two months in hospice care, Sanchez went to sleep in Jesus early Wednesday morning.
