Members & Visitors!

Measures to curb transmission has led to closures of non-essential venues and recommendations of social distancing.

In an abundance of caution to stop the spread, particularly to high-risk populations and persons with pre-existing vulnerabilities, the Washington Conference of Seventh-day Adventists has directed the closure of our churches until further notice.

In the interim, we have worked on live streaming and publishing a pre-recorded service for our congregation to watch on Sabbath.

Go online at portangelessda.org and click on the right top of the page and then click on “Live Stream”.

Also, last week's service can be viewed under the Video & Podcast tab.

Now that we have had an opportunity to learn the new technology, we would like to provide an additional point of contact for our church family. On Wednesdays at 6:30pm (normal prayer meeting time) we will host a Live Stream Prayer Meeting, which will include a short time of prayer with me (Pastor) and one or two of the elders.

As we go through a period of suspended church services, it is important for us to continue to remember the faithfulness of the Lord by returning our tithes and offerings. God is always faithful to His word and it is through giving that we express our love to Him and continue to move His work forward. Hebrews 10:23 NLT says:

“Let us hold tightly without wavering to the hope we affirm, for God can be trusted to keep His promise.”

Since we will not be meeting together as churches for a while, below are instructions as to how we can give electronically.

Go to portangelessda.org , click on top right of page, click on “Online Giving”, follow prompts, log in.

You may also write a check, fill out your tithe and offerings envelope and save it until the time we may congregate together again, or mail it to:

Psalm 46 (KJV)

1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

<sup>2</sup> Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

<sup>3</sup> Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

<sup>4</sup> There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

<sup>5</sup> God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall help her, and that right early.

<sup>6</sup> The heathen raged, the kingdoms were moved: he uttered his voice, the earth melted.

<sup>7</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

<sup>8</sup> Come, behold the works of the LORD, what desolations he hath made in the earth.

<sup>9</sup> He maketh wars to cease unto the end of the earth; he breaketh the bow, and cutteth the spear in sunder; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

<sup>10</sup> Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

<sup>11</sup> The LORD of hosts is with us; the God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah.

We ought to obey God rather than men. Acts 5:29.

A great crisis awaits the people of God. A crisis awaits the world. The most momentous struggle of all the ages is just before us.... The question of enforcing Sunday observance has become one of national interest and importance. We well know what the result of this movement will be. But are we ready for the issue? Have we faithfully discharged the duty which God has committed to us of giving the people warning of the danger before them? ... There are many who have never understood the claims of the Bible Sabbath and the false foundation upon which the Sunday institution rests. Any movement in favor of religious legislation is really an act of concession to the papacy, which for so many ages has steadily warred against liberty of conscience. Sunday observance owes its existence as a so-called Christian institution to “the mystery of iniquity”; and its enforcement will be a virtual recognition of the principles which are the very cornerstone of Romanism. When our nation shall so abjure the principles of its government as to enact a Sunday law, Protestantism will in this act join hands with popery; it will be nothing else than giving life to the tyranny which has long been eagerly watching its opportunity to spring again into active despotism.... If popery or its principles shall again be legislated into power, the fires of persecution will be rekindled against those who will not sacrifice conscience and the truth in deference to popular errors. This evil is on the point of realization. When God has given us light showing the dangers before us, how can we stand clear in His sight if we neglect to put forth every effort in our power to bring it before the people? Can we be content to leave them to meet this momentous issue unwarned? ...

When the laws of earthly rulers are brought into opposition to the laws of the Supreme Ruler of the universe, then those who are God's loyal subjects will be true to Him. <sup>3</sup>Testimonies for the Church 5:711-713. Mar.pg 131 (May 3rd)
