

Thomas Guy Harper, 37 of Bowling Green died Friday, August 7, 2015 at University of Louisville Hospital.

The Warren County native was a son of the late Edward Thomas Harper and Gail Driver Harper who survives. He is preceded in death by his paternal grandparents, Guy and Delphia Harper and maternal grandparents, Louie and Lera Driver. He was a construction worker and a graduate of Warren East High School. He loved to hunt, fish and ride his four wheelers and spending time in the outdoors with his many friends.

His survivors include his mother, Gail Driver Harper; his finance' Tiffany Hammonds; his sister, Sandy Harper Guillot (Kevin) two nieces, Brandi Basham and Jordan Moore Huddleston (Justin), several great nieces and nephews and many aunts and uncles, also his beloved dog, Roxie Rhea Harper.

Funeral service 1:00 p.m. Monday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green Chapel with burial in Oak Hill Cemetery. Visitation 12-8 Sunday at the funeral home.

Send Condolences