

In Loving Memory of

Mary W. Ashcroft

*Born September 24, 1931 - Logan, Utah
Died March 10, 2024 - Hyde Park, Utah*

PALLBEARERS

Danielle L. Sanders
Michael D. Ashcroft
Katie A. Hales
Ian P. Ashcroft

Lisa Ashcroft
Brady J. Ashcroft
Jason J. Ashcroft
Justin T. Ashcroft

HONORARY PALLBEARERS

Cameron D. Hales
Ethan R. Hales
Kylie L. Hales
Gunner M. Ashcroft
Emmlynn J. Ashcroft
Aria M. Ashcroft
Coulter I. Ashcroft

Miles O. Ashcroft
Alayna R. Ashcroft
Jackson K. Ashcroft
Malloy L. Garrick
Kyro H. Sanders
Sezja Sanders
Sloan Sanders

INTERMENT

Hyde Park City Cemetery

Dedication of the Grave Alan K. Ashcroft - Son

After the Dedication, Alan will be leading everyone in a Cheer for Mary.

Compassionate Service Cared For By: North Park 7th Ward Relief Society.

FUNERAL SERVICE

*Saturday, March 16, 2024 - 11:00 AM
North Park 7th Ward
Brother Gary Anderson, Conducting*

Family Prayer Dale R. Ashcroft - Son
Organist Lynn Thomas
Chorister Pat Ashcroft
Opening Hymn Hymn #227

“There is Sunshine in My Soul Today”

Opening Prayer David Hales - Grandson-in-law
Tribute and Life Sketch Richard W. Ashcroft - Son
Memories . . . Granddaughters, Great-Granddaughter, and Grandsons

Malloy L. Garrick - Great-Granddaughter
Danielle L. Sanders - Granddaughter
Jason J. Ashcroft - Grandson
Ian P. Ashcroft - Grandson
Marie A. Cannon - Granddaughter

Special Musical Number Lynn Thomas - Mary’s Favorite Organist

Mary’s Favorite Primary Song
“I Am a Child of God”

Memories Mike Grunig - Family Friend
Closing Remarks Brother Gary Anderson
Closing Hymn Hymn #165

“Abide With Me, Tis Eventide”

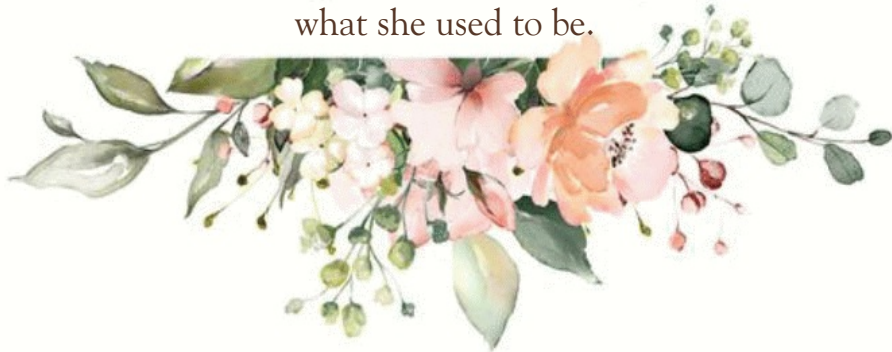

Closing Prayer Brady J. Ashcroft - Grandson

The family wishes to thank any and all who were such an important part of Mary’s life. She cherished each and every one of you.

“The old gray mare, she ain't what she used to be.”

This was Mary's favorite phrase over the last year and we take great delight in knowing that she is once again, exactly what she used to be.

IN LOVING MEMORY

Mary W. Ashcroft
1931 - 2024

ALLEN
MORTUARIES