Message of Encouragement: by Kendra Carlson

While I haven't lost anyone I know personally to COVID19, I'm hearing of others who have. A singer I enjoy lost two aunts in a week, one in her 80's and one in her 60's. They are feeling the loss and here comes Easter. How many times did they celebrate Easter with those aunts, maybe in their houses, sitting at their tables. Maybe they ate their cooking and Easter won't be the same without that dish. Maybe someone else will make it, but it won't be the same.

But here comes Easter. Easter when we remember that Jesus was raised from the dead as a FIRSTFRUIT, meaning many more will be raised in His name because of His heroic sacrifice. Death was defeated the day it couldn't hold Jesus down. No longer could Satan stop God from claiming His own people. The price was paid, the most cruel, exacting price was demanded and paid. What a terrible ransom price Satan set and imagined God would never stoop to pay it. But indeed He rose to pay it. His sacrifice is His glory.

And now those Aunties who breathed their last, will one day inhale God's breath of life and find all the people who loved them around them once more. What a promise this is. Death has died. Jesus put Satan under His foot. Evil has lost. Light will win.

What a high stakes game you played, Jesus, to win me back. You risked everything for me. Why? You love me. This is a mystery and a joy. Help me digest the fact that you call me worthy and that the people around me, including the ones I get furious with, are exactly as worthy of love. Shine your love straight out of the tomb and through my heart today.
