~ Reflections of His Life ~

Fredrick Walter Collier was born in Nashville, Tennessee on March 13, 1962 to Thomas Walter Collier and Freddie Loretta Collier.

He enlisted in the United States Army in 1980 to serve his country. He was discharged with honor in 1983. Shortly after, in Kansas City, KS he met Debra Payne and they had one son in 1987 by the name of Fredrick L.L. Collier. Later, Fredrick W. C.N.A. Fredrick enjoyed watching sports and cheering for his favorite football team the Kansas City Chiefs. He loved music and listening to the artist formerly known as "Prince". He loved collecting records, comics, and movies.

Fredrick Walter Collier departed from this life on December 26, 2023. He was preceded in death by his father, Thomas Walter Collier, his nephew Maurice Collier, and his younger brother Thomas Collier Jr.

Fredrick leaves to cherish in his memory, his only son, Fredrick L.L. Collier, his mother, Freddie Collier, and his Siblings: Tina Brown, Melvin Collier, Cindy Shirley, Andre Lloyd, Patrick Collier, Reginald Reed, Patricia Venerable, and Nicole James. Nieces: Alanta Collier, Patrice Bently, and Jamie Randle. Also, a host of other cousins and other relatives. And lastly, the love of his life Nyra Butler.
