Plan to come and get to know Elden and his vision for our conference.

Potluck for October will be NEXT Sabbath, the 13th, when our Conference President, Elden Ramirez will be with us. As always, please bring enough food for your family, as well as the many visitors we are blessed to have join us. Thank you.

They are all trying to ride 50 miles and are looking for sponsors on a per mile basis or just a straight donation. If you would like to be a sponsor and haven't been asked, please find your nearest Pathfinder. If you are not approached, please donate and mark your envelope "Oshkosh". For more information contact Josh Holloway or Tony Lloyd.

North Glacier Adventist Company's Annual Waldensian Sabbath is planned for October 20, 2018. This is a full day event and preregistration is required as space is limited. Call Karina Pettey at 406-890-1195 or email glacierseminars@gmail.com for additional information or to register.

Community Outreach

Compassion Weekend, October 12-13. Every Adventist Church, University, Academy, and School in North America is encouraged to make every second weekend of each month, a special time for intentional community outreach, attending to the needs of people in our neighborhoods. These weekends will serve as reminders of our mission.

ACS DR. Disaster Response Teams have been positioned in the affected states and SDA conferences to respond to hurricane Florence. The most effective way to weather any disaster is to be prepared. For every dollar spent on preparation, four dollars are saved during the recovery effort.

For more information on any of the above, please call Gabriele at 720-560-4763 or email gmlaub@gmail.com.
