

After Glow

I'd like the memory of me,
To be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow
Of smiles, when life is done.
I'd like to leave an echo,
Whispering softly down the ways.
Of happy times and laughing times,
& bright and sunny days.
I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
To dry before the sun.
Of happy memories that I leave behind
When my life is done.

Love Dai

Dai'Meon

At the rising of the sun and at its going down
We remember you.

At the blowing of the wind and in the chill of winter
We remember you.

At the opening of the buds and in the rebirth of spring
We remember you.

At the blueness of the skies and in the warmth of summer
We remember you.

At the rustling of the leaves and in the beauty of autumn
We remember you.

At the beginning of the year and when it ends
We remember you.

As long as we live, you too will live;
for your memories are now a part of us

as we remember you.

When we are weary and in need of strength

We remember you.

When we have joy we crave to share

We remember you.

As long as we live, your memories too will live;

for they are now a part of us
as we remember you.

DAI'MEON ALLEN

“Dai”

Dai'meon Allen was born September 2, 2008, in Robeson, North Carolina to Shamane Allen, and the late Desmond Burden.

He was a 14-year-old freshman, and recently transferred to Lindenwold high school. He had recently moved to Jersey 3 years ago with his mom, sister and niece.

He loved to stay home, playing his Video games, and playing his game with his cousins; play football, making TikToks, joking and laughing with friends and family. He was full of love and made all his cousins feel special. He was a protector of all. He was very introverted upon arrival but down the road made a group of friends he became very comfortable with. He had an infectious laugh that could fill any room.

Dai'meon loved to cook for his family and gloated on his “smack fried chicken”. At a young age he found small jobs like sweeping barbershops to earn money for himself. He was a very respectable young man with strong upheld opinions. His aura will be missed by all who knew him.

He leaves behind his mother, 5 sisters, 2 brothers, 3 nieces, 2 nephews and 1 on the way on his mom's side. He also has 3 brothers, 1 sister and 1 niece on his father's side. He had over 34 cousins in New York alone and countless cousins in New Jersey. A host of family and friends.
