The Life Story of

Keon

DEJUAN YOUNG

Keon Dejuan Young-Cook was born January 30, 2010 in Las Vegas, Nevada to the union of Keonta Cook and Jarrell Young. Keon was a bright light who was adored by all who came in contact with him. He was a loving child who was known for his infectious smile, caring nature, and his calming effect on everyone's mood. As a young child, Keon was a shy and quiet person who always had a smile on his face. Keon was admired, loved, and protected by his older siblings. He was a natural caregiver to his younger siblings and cousins. Keon was always patient, engaging, teaching and sharing his experiences with them.

Keon was a happy child who loved sports, playing video games, spiderman, dinosaurs, Godzilla, and hanging out with family and friends especially if food was involved. He was a charismatic person who never let his disability stop him from accomplishing anything he put his mind to do. In his young life, Keon took on many challenges which propelled him to excel in academics and sports, especially in basketball.

Keon's life cannot be measured by the amount of time that he was given but it can be measured by how he used his time while he was here. As a family, we can all attest that Keon lived his life every day to the fullest. Keon was preceded in death by his Grandfather: Robert Lee Cook Sr. Uncle: Bobby Kemp.

Dear Keon,

Though not bound by blood, our connection ran deep. Your vibrant spirit, genuine kindness, and the memories we shared will forever remain etched in my heart. Your absence is deeply felt, and I am grateful for the time we had together. I know you are up there with your Grandpa, exploring and eating all the pizza you want lol. Rest in peace, Keon you will be missed, but you impact on our lives will endure for a lifetime.

Love Phil
