FAMILY MATTERS

REFLECTING CHRIST

"The Lord claims the strength of brain, bone, and muscle; but it is too often withheld from Him and given to the world. The service of God is made a secondary matter, while worldly interests receive prompt attention. Thus things of minor consequence are made important, while the requirements of God, things spiritual and eternal, are treated in an indifferent manner, as something which may be taken up at will and let alone at pleasure.... If we realize the importance of the truth which we profess to believe, we should feel that we have a sacred mission to fulfill, a responsibility involving eternal results. All temporal interests would yield to this."

~ Testimonies Vol 4, pg. 613
