

Our Window

*I've looked out this window many a day
And wondered what tomorrow would bring
I've seen snow and clear blue sky
And a blizzard and absolutely nothing*

*I see cows that need our attention
I see horses that give us affection!
Sometimes there is green grass
Sometimes a sight we hope will pass*

*But most of all when I gaze out
I see my home and am happy without a doubt
This is our farm
I hope it's a spot so warm!*

*For my girls and boys and all
I wish to give them hope
That even thou they hate our call
They too can learn to cope*

*Life is a mixture of good and bad
Sometimes happy -- sometimes sad
Life doesn't often give us what we want
But God has his purpose and we will abide!*

~ Carlene Just

IN LOVING MEMORY

Jerry Just
1946 ~ 2021

Jerry Just, 75, New Salem, died July 24, 2021, at Elm Crest Manor, New Salem.

Jerry was born February 18, 1946, in Morton County at the home of his mother, Ethel Just. He attended New Salem schools, graduating in 1964. On September 16, 1967, Jerry married Carlene Weiss in New Salem. They bought a farmstead northeast of New Salem, where they worked side by side farming and milking cows for 24 years. Upon retiring from farming in 1992, Jerry began working construction in Bismarck, until his retirement in 2013.

Family was the most important thing to him.

Jerry was an avid outdoors man and enjoyed hunting, fishing, camping, and trail rides with his children and grandchildren. Jerry and Carlene enjoyed the trips they took to visit their family throughout the country. He loved tending to his garden and canning the produce and also liked to play cards, especially Cribbage. He was a member of the New Salem Saddle Club, Jaycees, Peace Church council, Elm Crest Board of Directors, and Fire District Board.

Jerry was diagnosed with cancer in February 2021. Courageous throughout his battle, he fought until the end. Generous and kind, Jerry was a beloved husband, father, grandfather, great grandfather, son, uncle, and friend to many. He will be missed by those who knew and loved him.

Blessed to have shared in his life are his four children, Charlotte (Mitchell) Erhardt, Bismarck, Candi (Stuart) Glass, Central City, NE, James (Rebecca) Just, Highlands Ranch, CO, and Joel (Kristen) Just, Bismarck; 10 grandchildren, Patricia (Nicholas) Thompson, Travis Erhardt, Brooke Glass (Brandon Gasseling), Seth Glass, Taylor and Kennedy Just, and Bradyn, Brycen, Emily, and Braxton Just; great grandchildren, Harper and River Thompson; mother-in-law, Genevieve Weiss, New Salem; brother-in-law, Arlon (Arlene) Weiss, New Salem; and his nieces, nephews, and countless friends.

Jerry was preceded in death by his wife of 46 years, Carlene; his mother, Ethel; and father-in-law, Arthur Weiss.
