Obituary

Carolyn Bradley Lovett was born on April 23, 1942 to the late Roosevelt and Mary Bell Washington Bradley. Our Mother was a lifetime resident of Statesboro, GA and was educated in the Bulloch County School System. She received her Unit Administrator Certificate from Georgia Southern University and diligently worked at East Georgia Regional Medical Center for over 38 years.

She served the Lord at The Original First African Baptist Church – Joining under the leadership of Reverend Bennie Brinson. She was an active member in the church leading the Willing Workers, participating on the Mother Board and she sang in the Senior and Gospel Choirs.

In 1960 she was married to Earnest Lovett Jr., and they were blessed with 6 children. Earshella Miles, Sherrell Lovett, Dr. Sharon Lovett-Ozue, Terrance Lovett, Stephanie Wynn, and Pereze Lovett. Her six children blessed her with 11 grandkids, and 10 Great Grandkids. Later in life, she was united with Eddie Peters and Mothered six stepchildren.

Our Mother was affectionately known to those who Loved her as Darling, Big K and Momma. She was called home to our Lord and Savior on Saturday March 11, 2023. She was preceded in death by Dorothy Shipmon, Ray Roosevelt Bradley, Ralph Mason, Lunnie Mae Williams, Mary Earthese Bradley and Carrie Golden. She leaves to cherish her memories her loving sisters, Lablanche Deloach and Jaqueline Royal and sister-in-law Ruthie May Bradley.

Weep not for her – in her springtime she flew to that land where the wings of the soul are unfurled; And now, like star beyond evening's cold dew, looks radiantly down on the tears of this world. Her race is done; her victory has been won!
