BROKEN CHAIN

We little knew that morning
that God was going to call your name.
And life we loved you dearly,
in death we do the same.
It broke our hearts to lose you;
you did not go alone.
For parts of us went with you
the day God called you home.
You left us peaceful memories;
your love is still our guide.
And though we cannot see you,
you’re always at our side.
Our family chain is broken,
and nothing seems the same.
But as God calls us one by one,
the chain will link again.

Clifford's LIFE STORY

Clifford Puckett was born March 18, 1953, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to the late Marie and Clyde Puckett, Sr.

Clifford was educated in the Philadelphia Public School system.

Clifford married the late Ann Marie Puckett on July 13, 1974. Together they had four children: Angela, Lynette, Khadijah and Clifford, Jr. After the passing of his wife, Clifford later in life met Bertha Beatty. They had three children: Jimmie, Clyde, and Julius.

Clifford was affectionately known in the neighborhood as "Little". Clifford enjoyed fishing, watching sports on television, and hanging out with longtime friends.

Clifford served in the Marines for four years. While serving in the Marines he was a skilled boxer. Upon his discharge in the Marines Clifford worked at Refreshment Machinist Incorporated (RMI) in the electrical department for nineteen years. Later in life, Clifford worked at Father Divines as a cook for eight years.

Clifford leaves to cherish loving memories his siblings, his twin brother, Clyde, III, Mae, Gwen, Cindy, Darnell, and Kevin. Nineteen grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, many sisters-in-law, brothers-in-law, nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and a host of close friends and a special friend, Mary.

Your life was a blessing,
Your memory a treasure,
You are loved beyond words,
& missed beyond measure...

REMEMBER ME

Fill not your hearts with pain and sorrow
But remember me in every tomorrow
Remember the joy, the laughter, and the smiles
I've only gone to rest a little while
So, dry your eyes and remember me,
Not as I am now, but as I used to be Because I will remember you all
And look on with a smile
Understand in your hearts
I've only gone to rest a little while
As long as I have the love of each of you,
I can live my life in the hearts
Of all of you

Lovingly Submitted,
Brothers & Sisters
