

His Journey Has Just Begun

Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much.

Celebrating the Life of

Robert Charles Taylor

December 31, 1928 - November 15, 2020

LIFE'S JOURNEY ROBERT CHARLES TAYLOR

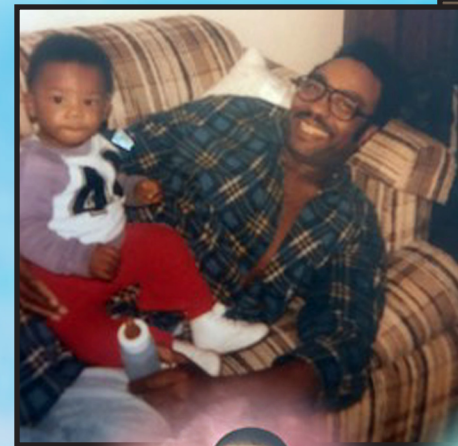

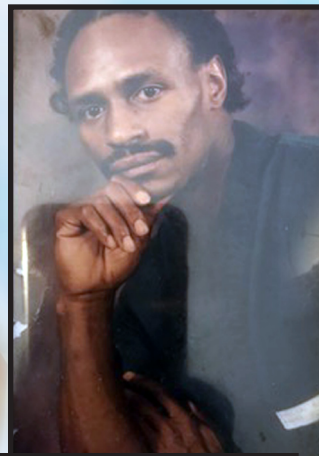

*To plant a seed in one's heart...to root it in love...
To nourish it with time spent together...
Yields a blossom that will flourish forever.*

Robert Charles Taylor was born on December 31, 1928, in Dennison, Texas to his mother, Hester Sampson. He was the second child born in the family. He was raised surrounded by his brother, Sammy. They spent their childhood in the country. He enjoyed fishing, pecan packing, and spending time with nature.

Robert received his formal education by attending the Dennison Independent School District in the state of Texas. On January 3, 1946, he enlisted in the United States Air Force. While serving his country, Robert earned a World War II Victory Medal. He served with honor and distinction and was honorably discharged.

Robert was the proud father of Robert, Sammy, Billie, DeWayne, Victoria, and Ronald. He married, the former Rosalie Gomez on November 6, 1998, in Texas. They first met in Denver, Colorado. With his union, he became the step-father of Roslyn. Robert is remembered as being a family man who enjoyed taking them to the mountains or fishing, and he singing, (or trying to sing.) He was later blessed with six grandchildren; fourteen great grandchildren; and two great great grandchildren. They fondly remember him taking them for rides around town, spending the weekend with him and looking forward to his good cooking. Rosalie preceded him in death on July 12, 2020.

By profession, Robert worked as a Waiter on the Rio Grande Railroad. He worked for Phillip 66 as a Truck Driver and he worked in a local meat packing plant. He owned a Landscaping Business and was a Shoe Shiner at Union Station. Wherever employed, he was hard-working, dedicated, and performed his duties with a spirit of excellence.

A man of faith and belief in the Lord, Robert was a member of Mount Sinai Baptist Church in Denver, Colorado. He served under the pastoral leadership of Reverend Alton Shields. He served his church and the Lord as a member of the Board of Deacons and the Board of Trustees. He believed in the power of prayer and that everyone needed to have the right relationship with the Lord.

Robert was a fun-loving man, who enjoyed life and those he encircled. In his free time, he continued to enjoy fishing, cooking, gardening, and spending quality time with family and friends. He carried a jovial personality and was a sports enthusiast. His closest friend, Billie Smith (his cousin) who preceded him in death, shared many comraderies together and they were true and trusted friends. He will be missed by all who were fortunate enough to have known this kind and wonderful man. To know Robert was to love him.

Robert Charles Taylor departed this life on November 15, 2020, in Aurora, Colorado. Those left to cherish his memory and mourn his loss include 3 sons, Robert C. Taylor of Denver, Colorado, Sammy G. Taylor of Texas, and Ronald C. (Sandra) Taylor of Ponderay, Idaho; 1 daughter, Victoria A. Taylor; his step-daughter, Roslyn D. Stubblefield both of Denver, Colorado; 6 grandchildren; 14 great grandchildren; 2 great great grandchildren, and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and many friends.
