

LOVE is patient, love is kind...
it does not envy, it does not boast
it is not proud. It is not rude, it is not self seeking, it is not easily angered,
it keeps no record of wrongs.
Love does not delight in evil
but rejoices in TRUTH.
It always protects, always trusts,
always HOPES, always preserves.
LOVE NEVER FAILS

- 1 Corinthians 13: 4-8

What a comfort...

For us to know that our burden of grief
was shared by our family & friends.

In Loving Memory of

David Wayne Blackmon, Sr.
March 11, 1961 - May 25, 2024

Don't think of him as gone away -
his JOURNEY'S JUST BEGUN, life holds so many facets -
this earth is only one.

Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth
AND COMFORT
where there are no days and years.

Think how he must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.

In the Hearts of those he touched
And think of him as living
For nothing loved is ever lost -
And he was loved so much.
- Ellen Brenneman

Honor Memory

Mr. David Wayne Blackmon, Sr., 63, of Drake Road, Elberton, husband of Tammy Lynn Hall Blackmon, passed away peacefully, while surrounded by his family, on Saturday evening, May 25, 2024, at his residence, following a five month battle with cancer.

David was born in Elberton on March 11, 1961, son of the late Howard Blackmon, Jr. and Lexie Ann Rudder Blackmon. He worked for many years as a small engine mechanic before starting David's Auto Glass. David loved go kart racing and participated in various races for many years. He will be remembered as a man of strong work ethic and for having a special love for his family.

Surviving, along with his wife Tammy, are his son and daughter-in-law, DJ and Jamie Blackmon; grandson, Starrett Blackmon, who was the apple of his Papa's eye; siblings: Dino and Susan Blackmon and Denise and Casey Black; nieces and nephews: Levi, Jamie, and Layton Blackmon, Hunter and Erika Blackmon, Paige, Alex, and Rhett Oliver, Mia Blackmon and her expected baby Everett Burger, Kamryn Black, Khloe Black, and Gavin Black; and a host of other relatives and friends.

He is preceded in death by parents; brother, Howard 'Darrell' Blackmon; and grandparents: LV and Frances Rudder and Howard and Ethel Blackmon.
