There's no words to express Our Gratitude top everyone who stood by us during this Celebration of Keyron's journey.
Thank you to all the ones whose loyalty proved solid through heart-felt moments of tears and laughter, visits, calls, messages, donations, and prayers.
This isn't goodbye to Keyron, It's simply "See You Later". To my day ones who stayed ten toes down. I'll see you on the other side- $au$e Keepin it 100.

They still laugh at the time when he brought a snake in the house and bit the head off a grass-hopper. Although he grew up in Denver, KeyRon spent a year in Arkansas with his extended family. The experiences gained were life changing. It was during this time that he learned of his love of the outdoors, animals, and fishing. He also spent valuable and memorable times with his uncle Ric in Atlanta during that year.

KeyRon matriculated through the Denver Public School system. He entered Denver Prep in 2006. He played football and was a beast on the football field. He received an award for Best Defensive Lineman. He enjoyed hanging with his friends, playing sports, playing on his PS5, going to the gun range, fixing his car, listening to Boosie and of course.....EATING! Whenever you couldn't find KeyRon, all you had to do was look in his favorite hiding place, under his grandmother's kitchen table with his hands and cheeks full of food. The mighty hog grain strikes again!!! KeyRon had a great sense of humor and he loved playing jokes on people. As a child, he was involved in church and Rec Center plays. He later maintained his position as a forklift/driver operator for many years.

KeyRon became a father at the age 19 and he embraced his role of fatherhood with pride, compassion, and elegance. His beautiful baby girl, Za'Naeveonna Lewis was his entire world, he loved her more than anything. KeyRon was engaged to his childhood sweetheart, Le'Che Reeves and he was blessed to inherit three bonus children, Rakiye, Zy'Kari, and Khamani who he loved as if they were his own flesh and blood. Throughout KeyRon and LeChe's childhood and young adulthood, they shared many first-time experiences. Le'Che remembers the first time KeyRon flew on an airplane. He had a tough exterior but as soon as the plane hit some turbulence, all that "toughness" flew out the window and prayers started going up. Then he had the nerve to act as if nothing had happened once, they stepped off the plane. He said, "It wasn't even that bad." His friends, Cody Seagraves, Tim Shackelford, and Daveon Young will always remember how loyal he was. He was always there for them, day or night. He will be missed by all who knew and loved him. "Wipe Me Down"

KeyRon Shamar Lewis embraced his Heavenly Father on March 30th, 2022. Those left to cherish his memory are his mother, LaRonda Jones; fiancé, Le'Che Reeves; daughter, Za'Naevonna Lewis; brothers, Kiawa Lewis, Kilyn Lewis, Keyair Lewis, Jonathon Grundy, and Lazareus Lewis; sisters, Kieshia Lewis, LaRonda Grundy, and LaKyla Grundy; grandmothers, Curlie Correa and Sherdina Lewis; 3 bonus children, and a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, and numerous friends.

Tribute to Keysause

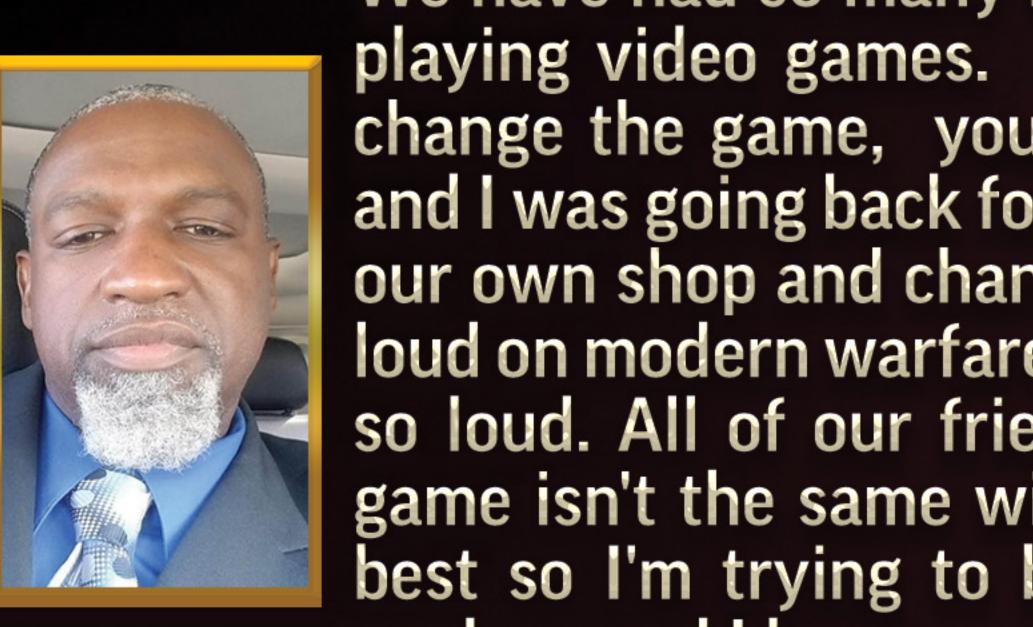

Bro, baby bro... remember how all four of us grew up and were k as thieves playing power rangers. I miss the times where used to rap "I'm a dying Cockroach" while we were on punishment- that was the last time we were on punishment. Oh, I remember how strong you were, you were so underestimated until one day Grandma coins was gone - boy Kilyn and I got the ass whoopin of my life because there was no way you or KeyAir could've lifted them coins. I'm going to miss you coming to the house when I cook and you say "bro that was bussin". I will miss that time when we had to let "busta" have it. Bro, the day you, Kilyn, and KeyAir told me that I was like a dad to y'all. That made me become a better brother. I'm shedding tears right now but you now have the greatest gift any individual could ask for, that is peace.

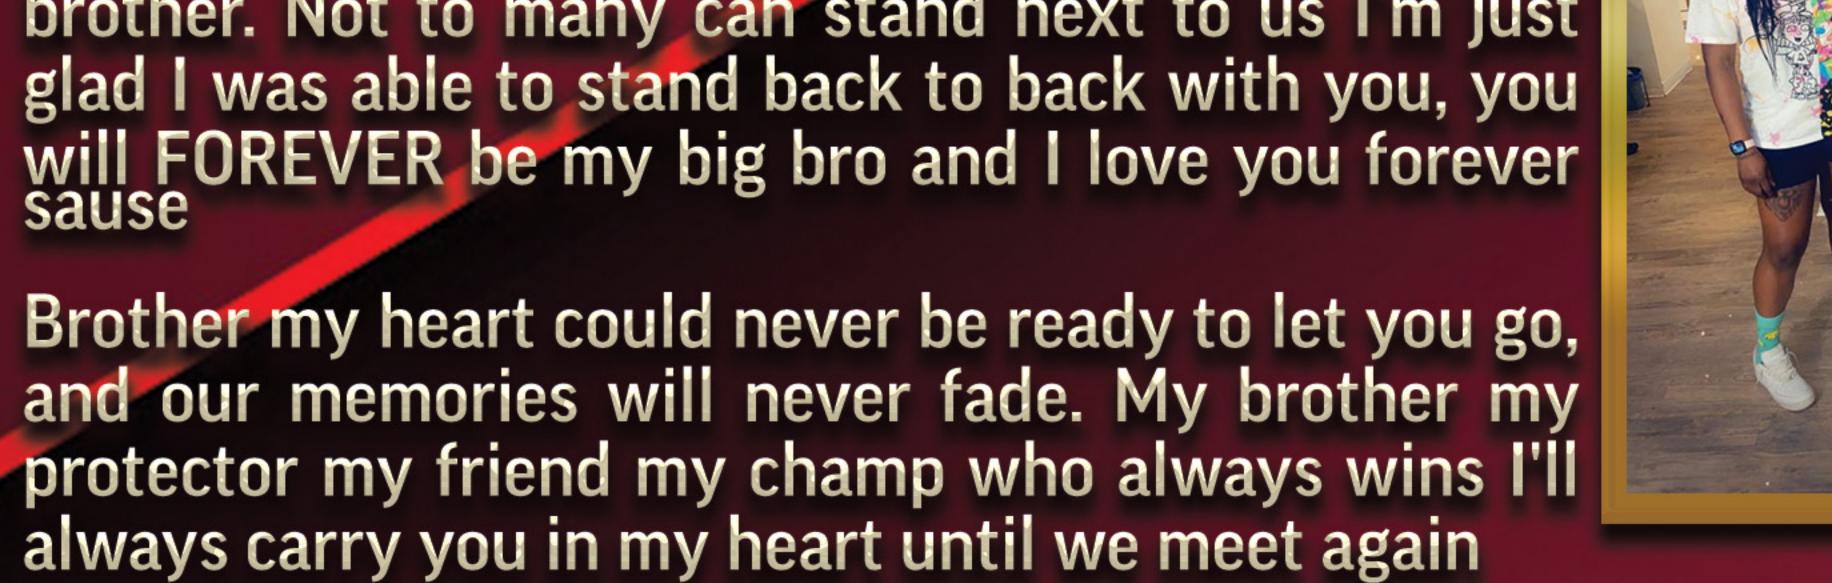

My Dearest Nephew

You have been an ultimate joy since day one with your crazy sense of humor and infectious smile. Even though you sometimes try to act tough, inside you have a heart of gold and are always trying to help others. My love for you is immeasurable.

Keyron Lewis better known to me is my RINGING HOG GRAIN. We have had so many fun memories from going to six flags to playing video games. Man we had plans that were going to change the game, you were about to go to mechanic school and I was going back for paint and body, we were going to have our own shop and change it up. I going to miss us being extra loud on modern warfare making everyone upset cause we were so loud. All of our friends missing you already so I'm I. The game isn't the same without you. But the lord knows what's best so I'm trying to be strong through this but I miss you nephew and I love you. Until we meet again love you RINGING HOG GRAIN..

To my brother suase, Bro you been my protector since I met you, always stood solid and never switched up. Always looked out no matter what, and for that I am absolutely grateful I got to call you my brother. Not to many can stand next to us I'm just glad I was able to stand back to back with you, you will FOREVER be my big bro and I love you forever sause

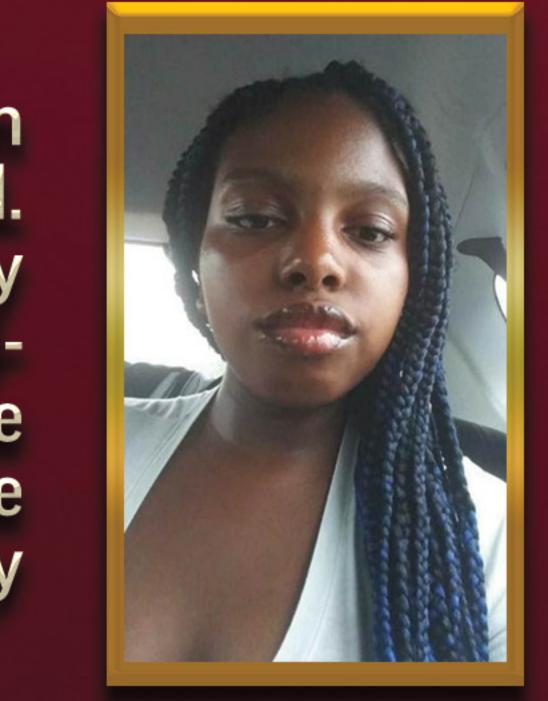

I know ur in my heart and mind memories and morals bro..... I miss yo voice and guidance bro. But I know you still hear me when I'm talkin. You're watching over us all everyday and I know through the Lord and your teachings I'll be able to live in the ways that would make you proud. I love you big bro. I'm so proud to have you as a big brother and I feel blessed to have had you placed in my life bro.

To my brother Keyron, I wished i wouldn't have taken your presence or our time together for granted. You're character of love, peace, joy, and bravery shown just who you were. You were like strong soldier with a big warm heart protecting me from the world but at the same time acting silly making me laugh. Rest in peace big brother. You'll be greatly

My baby brother, my heart, time has run out but I'm still running to you. I can't stop wondering why God 🔣 took you from us so soon. I pray his decision has made I happy and at peace. No words can express how much I'm going to miss you. I never thought my birth-day would be the last time we talked and smoked, or had a drink together. Ima cherish my memories and turn my hurt into passion that represents you. I love you baby bro till the end of my time, fly high my soul.

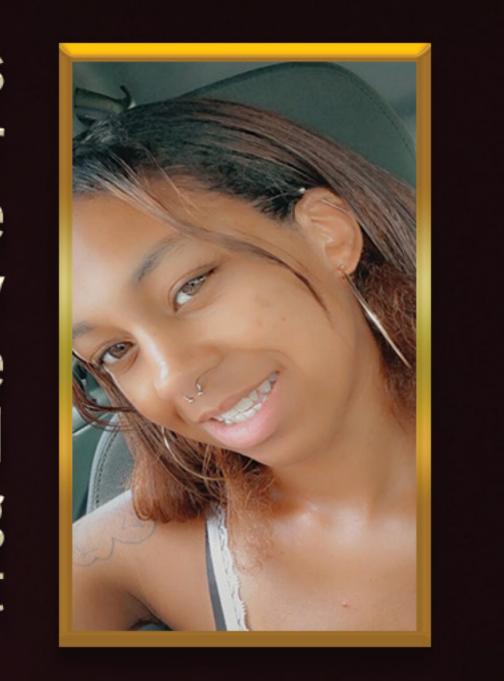

Until we meet again, I'll think about you always, I really enjoyed watching you grow! You have never been forgotten and you never will. we all hold you close within our hearts and there you will remain to walk and guide us through our lives until we meet again you will always be missed nephew love you.

I love you little bro. Rest easy and watch over us all always. I'll make sure your niece cherishes her memories with you and knows how much you loved her. You'll always be one of her all time favorite uncles. Until we meet again.

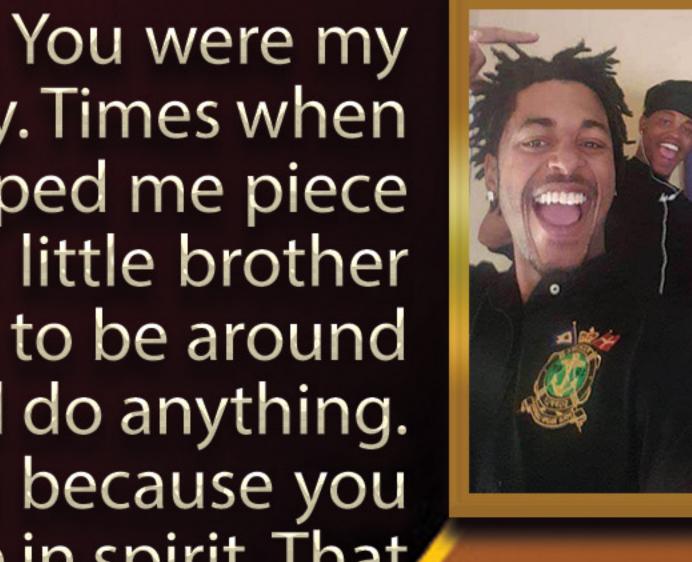

Forever love Keyron! My partner in crime and forever on. Many of our memories I will forever cherish, growing up with you has and will always be a core memory to me. My best memory and most funny is when grandma lived in Montbello in that 4 floor house and that mattress under her window that we used to jump out of when we were in trouble. The truck on the side of the house that we jumped in to jump on the roof. All the fun times doing stuff we know our parents would have had us doing military time for but we arent going to talk about all of that. I know things had gotten pretty tough in life and you felt it was your time to gain peace. I respect your decision and know that although your physical appearance is not here anymore your spirit and soul is still around and you will forever live on through everyone that you had a impact on. Life will never go on the same but im going to continue with your hype ambition and life of the party attitude. Forever with me and forever love. Death couldnt even part us if it wanted to.

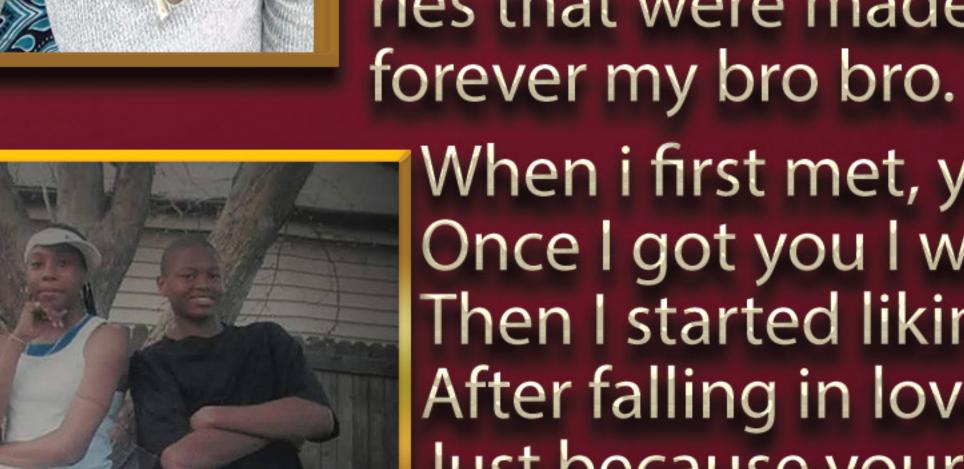

May you Rest In Peace. It's sad that you had to go so soon just as you were being part of our lives again, if only you had more time to live so we could have more time with you. It may have been time for you to go but I wasn't ready for you to leave. I wish you would've made a difference, but I know it's too late now, so all I can say is that I love you in living and in death. Without you nothing will be the same but at least you're in a better place now. I know everything happens for a reason but I would give anything to spend another day with you. It's going to be hard not having you here in the flesh but I know you'll be with me in spirit and I'm going to use this as motivation to keep pushing, be better, do better, and make your proud. R.I.P. my big brother Keyron you'll always be remembered as one of the greatest.

I always told you that I was your #1 fan. You were so special to me. When you were around I felt complete. You were my right hand man. I see you in everything and you were not just somebody, you were the best kind of somebody. Times when I was afraid, you gave me courage. When I was lost, you helped me find my way. When I was broken, you helped me piece myself back together. When I was weak, you gave me strength. You were my best friend, you were the best little brother anyone could ask for. You are smart, strong, courageous, funny, loving, bold, loyal, comforting, energetic, fun to be around and crazy about what her loved. I'm going to really miss his smile, his goofyness, you make me feel like I could do anything. You would check on me like I was your lil brother. You would come to my house and take what you wanted because you knew I was your baby boy. There was nothing too good for you. I miss you so much but I know you are with me in spirit. That will have to do until I see you again.

Thanks for being the big brother that stayed on me to do the right things to become a better man, even though it' didn't feel like that at times. The clock stopped way too soon on you It's like a bad dream that I can't awake from. I wish we could've spent more time together. I appreciate you for having my back when it counted the most and taking the time to talk to me when I needed a listening ear. I'm going to miss you bro.
