

PSALM 121

I will lift up my eyes to the hills—
From whence comes my help?

My help comes from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not allow your foot to be moved;
He who keeps you will not slumber.

Behold, He who keeps Israel
Shall neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is your keeper;
The Lord is your shade at your right hand.

The sun shall not strike you by day,
Nor the moon by night.

The Lord shall preserve you from all evil;
He shall preserve your soul.

The Lord shall preserve your going out and your coming in
From this time forth, and even forevermore.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF

STANLEY LIMBERG
February 17, 1937 – March 1, 2023

Stanley Merle Limberg, 86, of Woden, IA, passed away on March 1, 2023, at his home with the comfort of his family.

Stanley was born on February 17, 1937, to his parents, Edward and Esther (Meyer) Limberg in rural Iowa on the very same farm that he passed away on. After Stanley graduated from Woden High School in 1954, he worked for a carpenter in the Woden area. He then served in the Army National Guard. After his father, Edward Limberg, passed away in 1960, Stanley took over the family farm in rural Iowa.

A couple years later, Stanley Limberg met Ann Langehough (Limberg) in Sioux City, IA. They were introduced to each other by Mavis Limberg who was in the same nursing school as Ann. Stanley and Ann were married on June 12, 1964, at Woden Christian Reformed Church where Stanley was baptized, made profession of faith, and served as a deacon and elder for many years. They resided in rural Woden where Stanley farmed and Ann worked as a nurse. They went on to have four children, Mark, Tim, Karen, and John. Stanley also raised hogs on the farm. He used his knack for genetics to win many county fair livestock shows in the Hancock County area.

Stanley enjoyed sports and watching his children play sports in high school. He was an avid fan of the St. Louis Cardinals and Iowa Hawkeyes. He worked as an umpire with his partner, Arnold Eden, and later with his son, John Limberg, officiating local high school baseball and softball.

Stanley had a passion for fishing, both recreationally and competitively. He took his family on countless family fishing and boating trips in Minnesota. He enjoyed fishing walleye with his son, Mark Limberg, and grandson, Kristopher Limberg, on the Missouri River. During those times, Stanley and Mark frequently won local fishing tournaments in South Dakota.

Stanley farmed until he was 83 years old. In later years, Stanley was inspired by God and enjoyed serving as a lay minister for Woden Christian Reformed Church and Wright Christian Reformed Church. He also worked as an advocate for the Gideons International.

Stanley was predeceased by his parents, Edward and Esther (Meyer) Limberg, and his brother, Duane "Whitey" Limberg.

He is survived by his sister, Sheryl (Limberg) and husband Bernard Bovenkamp of Lynden, WA; his wife, Ann Limberg of Woden, IA; his son, Mark and wife Carol Limberg of Platte, SD, and their children, Kristopher and Danielle Limberg of Omaha, NE; his son, Timothy Limberg of Sioux Falls, SD; his daughter, Karen (Limberg) and husband Brian Boomgarden, and their daughters, Allison and Macy Boomgarden, of Wellsburg, IA; and his son, John and wife Mandy Limberg, and their children, Amelia and Jake Limberg of Scottsdale, AZ.
