Navorise Barnes

son of the late Thomas "Rennie" Barnes and Hilda Mae Hunter Barnes, was born September 4, 1956 in Wilson County, North Carolina. His earthly life ended on Friday, October 28, 2022 as he was called to his eternal rest. Affectionately called "Doc" by his family and friends, Navorise was reared in Wilson where he received his education from the Wilson County Public School System. Entering the workforce, he was gainfully employed by Central Soya and Bridgestone. He later earned a certification at Johnson County Trucking School and began transporting freight nationwide for several carriers. He transported for R&L Carriers for over ten years and Barnes Transportation for about fifteen years until he became ill.

Loving, kind, and devoted, Doc loved life as he enjoyed traveling, visiting, and viewing the many sights all over the country. Always showing himself friendly, he enjoyed the many different people he encountered along the way. His life was full. He savored much. His favorite past time was listening to the music he loved. To know him was to love him. He was easy going, fun loving, helpful and caring. He loved his family and delighted in the many pleasures he received from each one. Doc was a devoted and caring father, grandfather, brother, and friend who always made certain that the needs of his family were taken care of. A dear beloved heart is now at rest to always be remembered with love and adoration. He was preceded in death by his parents, his paternal grandparents, Tom Barnes and Maggie Ward Barnes; maternal grandmother, Lessie Hunter; two brothers, Tommie "Nate" Barnes and James Hunter; and one nephew, Levi Allen.

Precious memories are forever cherished by his daughter, Zartisha Davis (Ernest) of Wilson, NC; three sons, Navoa Barnes, Brian Barnes, and Rodrickos Barnes all of Wilson, NC; his finance', Alice Streeter of the home; three stepchildren, Donald Lucas, Denise Lucas, and Alisha Lucas; three sisters, Rennie Barnes Carr (Larry), Rosemary Barnes, and Minister Barbara Allen all of Wilson, NC; four grandchildren, Mintrell Farmer, Elijah Lucas Barnes, J'ahdore Lucas Barnes, Soloman Barnes, and Amber Anthony; four great grandchildren, A'liah, Kayleigh, Kahliyah, and Winter; three aunts, Bernice McCall and Annie Mae Ellis of Wilson, NC and Elnora Blanch Cooper Jones of Greensboro, NC; one special niece, Sharon Barnes of Wilson, NC; two other nieces, Sharee Hunter and Camil Hunter of Richmond, CA; one special nephew, Brandy Barnes of Wilson, NC; a host of great nieces and great nephews, and cousins; Janice Coe, the mother of his children; best friends, Gary Lucas, Richard "Zeke" Zeigler, Thurman "Big T" Farmer, Billy Gounds, and Anthony Jones.

MISS ME, BUT LET ME GO!

When I come to the end of the road
and the sun has set for me.
I want no rites in a gloom filled room,
Why cry for a soul set free?
Miss me a little, but not for long
And Not with your head bowed low.
Remember the love that we once shared,
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO.
For this is a journey that we all must take,
And each must go alone.
It's all part of the Master's plan,
A step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart,
Go to the friends we know.
And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds,
MISS ME BUT LET ME GO.
