

Acknowledgement

We, the family of Kathryn Nabors, would like to take this opportunity to thank each of you for your kindness. Whatever your part in helping to console our hearts during this time of bereavement, it will forever be remembered and for this, we are eternally grateful. May God bless you all is our prayer.

~Psalms 23~

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Life Reflections

Kathryn Nabors was born September 2, 1952, right here in Kansas City, Missouri, to Allie Lee Jackson and Caddy Garlyn.

Kathryn went to high school at Lincoln Prep High School. After she graduated, she went on to become a nurse. As a nurse she worked at Clair Miner Nursing Home. As a young woman she met her husband, Bennie. Kathryn and Bennie are the parents of three boys: Bennie Jr, Terry & Andrew. As a mother of three boy, Kathryn worked hard to always make sure her family was taken care of while keeping her spunk and her jazzy personality. As one of the oldest girls of 13 children, Kathryn helped raise all her younger siblings. She loved to do things like cook and dance while listening to some of her favorite hits such as "For the Good Times" or "Lay Your Head on My Pillow." Kat was also a nature person; she enjoyed sitting outside and reading a good book by her favorite author Donald Goins.

Ms. Kathryn Nabors departed from this life on Oct 4, 2024.

Kathryn leaves to cherish her memory, children: Bennie Jackson Jr and Andrew Nabors; her siblings: Crystal, Micheal, Levi, Andrey, Fabian, Marlo, Larry, Karen; all her beautiful grandchildren, great grandchildren, nephews, nieces, and all of her other loved ones.47
