And He will raise you up on eagles' wings

Bear you on the breath of dawn

Make you to shine like the sun

And hold you in the palm of His hand

Scott Huber, 66, passed away on July 5, 2023.

Scott Gregory Huber was born on December 11, 1956, to Marlene and Vernon Huber in Phoenix, Arizona. Scott's father was a pilot in the Air Force, so there were many moves during his formative years. Scott had a good sense of humor, which helped him throughout his life as he went on different ventures, such as woodworking/cabinet making, roofing, power plant operation, welding, billboard placement (even though he was afraid of heights) and once tried dabbling in meat cutting, as well.

Scott is survived by his father, Vern; sister, Marla Joersz; brother-in-law, Randy Joersz; niece, Mandy (Charlie) Dendy, Bismarck, ND; Blaine (Kiana) Joersz, Denver, CO; Melissa Joersz, Emmetsburg, IA; Jayme Baker; and his nieces and nephews, Maddie, Lola, Willow, and Izzy Dendy, Adriana and Quinlan Joersz, and Jayson and Carter Baker.

He was preceded in death by his sister, Jane Marie; mother, Marlene; grandparents, Joseph and Elsie Huber; Matt J. and Katie Boehm; as well as many aunts, uncles, and cousins.

Go Rest High on That Mountain, Scott!
