

COVID-19 relief FUND

application

The Southern California Conference COVID-19 Relief Fund is intended to assist church members who can demonstrate that, as a direct result of COVID-19, they have experienced a loss of income from: 1) job loss, 2) job furlough or 3) reduced work hours.

The local church will receive the application along with supporting documentation and submit complete package to the Southern California Conference. Any approved funding will be sent to the local church to distribute to the approved applicants, as funds are available. The maximum amount given per applicant will be $300, and we will accept no more than 5 requests per church.
