Dear Parents,

It has been a busy week. The kids have been troopers! Our schedule has been so crazy, and they have just rolled with the flow. They were so careful with MAPS Assessments.

We had soooooo much fun today celebrating 100 days of school! We had a bunch of "old" people at school today!!!! (The kids looked GREAT!). We made bar graphs with M & Ms, made Fruit Loops necklaces, made a house of cards with 100 playing cards, & built with 100 Lego's. It was fun!

The week of February 8-12 we are going to have Week of Prayer. We will celebrate God's Love for us. Upper Graders will read our worship story and Lower Graders will read the worship verse. Groups of kids will lead out in song service. Then, on Friday, Feb. 12, we will have our Valentine's Day party. The kids can bring Valentines for their class or the whole school. We do ask that any Valentine's Day treats be prepackaged. We will be playing Valentine's Day Jingo and watching Be My Valentine Charlie Brown!

We would like to thank all of you for the good participation in our Snow Day E-School Event. Please remember, we do not build snow days into our calendar. This means we have e-school. E-School assignments are to be treated the same as assignment given in school. When Lincoln Public Schools are closed we are closed. Please watch out for your student's assignments by 9am. Next week there are several chances for snow events. Please watch the weather and make sure your child is dressed accordingly.
