

Jacqueline “Jackie” Langren of Battle Lake, formerly of Fergus Falls and Perham, passed away peacefully at 91 on October 5, at Perham Health.

Jackie was born and raised in Great Bend, ND; the daughter of the late Herb and Esther (Adamson) Weiss. She attended high school in Wahpeton and graduated from Concordia College in Moorhead. Upon graduation Jackie traveled to Europe with two friends biking, hiking and hitchhiking throughout five countries. She taught business education and English courses in Buffalo, MN where she met her husband, Don. They were married for 53 years. After raising their two girls, she returned to teaching at the Fergus Falls Community College and Battle Lake High School. To this day past students thank “Mrs. Langren” for teaching them how to type...now known at keyboarding...as this skill has been most helpful in their everyday lives and careers. She herself even conquered the iPad and had a Facebook account in her later years.

Upon retirement she and Don wintered at Sun Lakes, AZ, but returned in the summer to either Blanche Lake, the Ottertail River or Devils Lake outside Perham. Jackie was the “waterski boat driver” for her kids and their friends and also enjoyed pontooning, canoeing, sailing and wild ricing. Camping and canoeing throughout Alaska for a month was roughing it but she enjoyed a little pampering on cruises as well. They also spent time RV’ing during the Arizona years with a great group of friends.

Jackie was an active member of Calvary Lutheran Church in Perham for many years but joined First Lutheran Church of Battle Lake upon her residence five years ago at Lakeview Assisted Living. She leaves behind many good friends there. Jackie received such good care at Lakeview and Perham Health by their dedicated employees.

She was predeceased by her husband; sister and brother-in-law Don and Yvonne Lind; brother-in-law, Marlowe Johnson; and son-in-law Michael Reynolds.

Survivors include her two daughters, Sue Reynolds and Jill (Dean) Damrau of Battle Lake; grandson, Austin Damrau of Dubuque, IA; sister, Rae Johnson of Greenville, PA; cousin, Cheryl (Glen) Heitmann of Fulton, MO; and nieces and nephews in MN and PA.

Your Mother is Always with You

She's the whisper of the leaves
as you walk down the street.

She's the smell of certain foods you remember,
flowers you pick, the fragrance of life itself.

She's the cool hand on your brow
when you're not feeling well.

She's your breath in the air on a cold winters' day.

She is the sound of the rain that lulls you to sleep, the colors of a rainbow.

She is Christmas morning.

Your mother lives inside your laughter.

She's the place you come from, your first home.

She's the map you follow with every step you take.

She's your first love, your first friend, even your first enemy.

But nothing on Earth can separate you.

Not time. Not space. Not even death.

In Loving
