

Miss Me, But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road and the sun has set for me,

I want no rites in a gloom-filled room,

Why cry for a soul set free.

Miss me a little, but not too long,

and not with your head bowed low.

Remember the love that we once shared,

miss me, but let me go.

For this journey we all must take,

and each must go alone.

It's all part of the Master's plan,

a step on the road to home.

When you are lonely and sick of heart,

go to the friends we know.

And bury your sorrows in doing good deeds.

Miss me, but let me go.

IN LOVING MEMORY

She later became the office manager at K-Mart where she remained for over 25 years until her retirement. Pat was a lifetime member of the Catholic Daughter's and St. Joseph Catholic Church. Her giggling laughter and daily smiles will be forever missed by her wonderful caregivers, friends, and family!

Ken and Pat were inseparable in life, now they are together again and dancing in Heaven.

The family wishes to extend a special thank you to the staff at Edgewood Vista on Dominion and Miller Pointe for the excellent care given to Pat.
