

WAYNE "MADDOG" MADISON

Wayne "MadDog" Madison, 65, of Bowling Green died quietly in his sleep June 26, 2007 at his home.

The Warren County native was a self-employed salesman, a member of Indian Hills Country Club and served in the Air Force. His smile, wit tantrums on the golf course and conversation will be deeply missed.

Memorial service is at 10 a.m. Saturday at Hardy & Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel. Visitation begins at 9 a.m. Saturday at the funeral home. A celebration of life is from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday at Indian Hills Country Club.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to the American Lung Association.

Survivors include his wife of 40 years, Martha Sacrey Madison; his loving parents, Hoyt and Willew Dene Madison of Bowling Green; two sons, Jim Madison and his wife Michele, and Zachary Madison, all of Bowling Green two daughters, Ann Madison Phillips and her husband Teak, of St. Louis, and Caroline Madison Brownlee and her husband, Jackson, of Bowling Green a sister, Jean Pace and her husband, Wilton, of Woodburn; four granddaughters Maia Madison, Scout Madison, Jane Brownlee and Anne Brownlee, all of Bowling Green; his mother-in-law, Mary Sacrey of Bowling Green; and several nieces and nephews.

Send Condolences