

Elizabeth Mae (Mattison) Cunningham was born on the farm south of Grove City on November 26, 1928, to Nick & Jennie (Jacobson) Mattison. She was baptized, confirmed and married at Immanuel Lutheran Church of Grove City. She attended Grove City school, graduated from high school in May of 1946 and then worked in Minneapolis at Western Union for three years.

On May 28, 1950, Elizabeth was united in marriage to Oliver Cunningham. They lived on a farm southwest of Atwater until 1996 when they moved to Kandiyohi. She was a member of Bethlehem Lutheran Church where she was active in the ladies aide organization, sang in the choir, lead church choir, helped with Sunday school music and assisted with the altar guild. Elizabeth was also an active member of the Kandiyohi County Dairy Association for several years.

She is survived by twelve children, Connie (Doug) Paine of San Diego CA, Kim (Dean) Pelzer of St Augusta, Kate (Jonathan) Libby of San Jose CA, Charles (Carol) Cunningham of Atwater, Margaret (Rick) Stang of Sartell, Martin (Michelle) Cunningham of Princeton, John (Laura) Cunningham of Atwater, Janet (Ritchie) Johnson of Kerkhoven, Elizabeth (Jan) Larson of Buffalo, Helen (Barry) Haggarty of Bloomington IL, Jane Hershstein of Fairhaven, and Sarah (Paul) Anderson of Plymouth; as well as 25 grandchildren and 27 great grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Oliver; daughter, Eleanore; son-in-law, Mordechai Hershstein; her parents; one brother and three sisters.

Trees

BY JOYCE KILMER

I think that I shall never see
A poem lovely as a tree.

A tree whose hungry mouth is prest
Against the earth's sweet flowing breast;

A tree that looks at God all day,
And lifts her leafy arms to pray;

A tree that may in Summer wear
A nest of robins in her hair;

Upon whose bosom snow has lain;
Who intimately lives with rain.

Poems are made by fools like me,
But only God can make a tree.
