OBITUARY

With that, I heard a loud voice from the throne say "Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them and they will be his people. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry be anymore. The former things have passed away.

Rev 21: 3-4

Cecil Frazier affectionately known as "PaPa" was born to the late Booker T and Mary Frazier on May 14, 1930. Even though he didn't graduate from high school, he didn't let this prevent him from joining the military. He also had a successful career as a concrete finisher with Gelder & Associates of Raleigh until he retired.

Cecil was a man of few words. Some of his favorites were, when someone (grandkids) asked Can I use the bathroom, his reply was Didn't you know you had to use the bathroom before you left home? Ironically, if he spoke harshly or sarcastically to you, then you knew you were loved. It was when he didn't speak to you that you had to worry. His favorite pastime was sitting on his front porch at 311 S. Raiford Street and watching everything. Some of his favorite sayings were "The Lord knows, cause I don't.", "God bless the child that has his own", and "It's a poor rat that has only one hole". He was stern on the outside and soft as cotton on the inside.

Cecil was 93 years old at the time of his death. His beloved wife Doris Frazier of 63 years preceded him in death. Booker T Jr. his brother, Tebria Frazier his granddaughter, Michael Barnes, his grandson, and Cecilia Dobson his daughter preceded him in death.

Cecil leaves to cherish his memories: Kevin Frazier (Anita) Four Oaks NC, Karen and Brenda Frazier Simms Town NC, Brian Frazier (Teneen) Clayton NC, John Frazier (Jacqueline) Selma NC, Carolyn Davis Selma NC, Lottie Hall Selma NC and Frank Allen Selma NC. Grandchildren: Je'taya, Rachel, Kevin Jemal, Olivia, Kevin Malik, Letitia, Zachary, Desiree, Deidra, DeLisa, Deanna, Daquan, Brian Jr., Mahogany and John Jr. Reginald Barnes, Anthony Barnes, Frank Allen Jr. and Nichelle Hall. A Loving and very special sister Blanche McFarland (Peggy) of Wilsons Mills. A host of great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews, cousins, friends, and Kinfolk
