Beloved Mother

He will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them; he will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed away.

Revelation 21:1-4

He Only Takes The Best

*God saw you getting tired and a cure was not to be,
so he put his arms around you,
and whispered. "Come to me".*

*With tearful eyes we watched you,
and saw you pass away.
Although we loved you dearly,
we could not make you stay.*

*A golden heart stopped beating,
hardworking hands at rest,
God broke our heart to prove to us

Her STORY

Evelyn Brooks was born on October 29, 1940 to Carrie Frierson Brooks and Sydney Brooks. She grew up in a nice neighborhood in North Philadelphia, PA. She was educated in the Catholic and Public Schools systems of Philadelphia. Evelyn believed education was important, so much so, that she practiced her skills acquired in school on her baby sister, Marianne.

As an adult, Evelyn began her work career as a power, machine operator for which she worked many years.

She would later turn to the field of nursing and become a nurse's assistant. She worked with her sister, who was a director of nursing, to train others in the field of nursing. Evelyn was a compassionate and excellent nurse's assistant.

Evelyn was united in holy matrimony to Freeman Fletcher. From their union they had one daughter, Roxanne Fletcher.

Evelyn became a Jehovah Witness in the late 1960s and was faithful to her beliefs. She also had a strong belief that family was important. She could be dependent upon when family needed a babysitter.

Evelyn cherished family and believed family should love one another as Christ loves us.

Evelyn was predeceased by her husband, Freeman Fletcher, and leaves to cherish her memory: her daughter, Roxanne Fletcher, three grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren, one great-great grandson, one sister, Marianne Ray, sister-in-law, June Brooks, a very close friend, Mabel Parker, cousins, and a host of nieces, nephews, and friends.
