

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me,
please try to understand,

That an angel came and called my name,

and took me by the hand;

The angel said my place was ready,
in Heaven far above,

And that I'd have to leave behind
all those I dearly love.

But when I walked through Heaven's gates,

I felt so much at home.

For God looked down, smiled at me,

And told me "Welcome Home."

So, when tomorrow starts without me,
don't think we're far apart,

For every time you think of me,

I'm right there in your heart.

Karen M. Gellner was born October 11, 1951, in Langdon, ND, to Richard and Iris Mae (Dobbie) Gellner. She grew up on the family farm and graduated from Langdon High School in 1970. Karen then attended the University of North Dakota where she received her degree in elementary education. She then taught school in Munich, ND, for several years and later worked at Maple Manor in Langdon as a CNA until her retirement. Things she enjoyed were reading, playing cards and games, painting, swimming, and gardening. In the spring of the year, she liked looking for crocuses.

She is survived by her siblings: Donna (Donald) Glarum of Mandan, ND, Jane Gellner of Grand Marias, MN, Susan (Larry) Garner of Grand Forks, ND, and Scott (Darcy) Gellner of Langdon, ND, along with several nieces, nephews, great-nieces and great-nephews. Preceding her in death were her parents, sister Marcy, and brother-in-law Terry Lorenz.

Karen passed away Friday, November 18, 2022, at Essentia Health in Fargo, ND, at the age of 71.
