

RAYMOND FRANCIS JACKSON

Raymond Francis Jackson, 91, of Bowling Green died at 4:55 a.m. June 15, 2008, at his residence.

The Warren County native was a retired employee of the state Highway Department. He was a member of Jackson Grove Baptist Church and was one of the frontier people who helped organize Warren County Parks and Recreation. The Bristow baseball park was named after him in September 2007. He loved the University of Kentucky Wildcats, the Atlanta Braves and gospel music. He was a son of the late Curtis Hillary Jackson and Ola Wren Froedge Jackson. He was preceded in death by a brother, William David "Tooter" Jackson; a grandchild, Jimmy Lee White; a daughter-in-law, JoAnn Jackson; and two brothers-in-law, Jim Brooks and Charles L. Wilson, Jr.

Funeral is at 2 p.m. Thursday at Hardy and Son Funeral Home, Bowling Green chapel, with burial in Chapel Hill Memorial Gardens. Visitation is from 4p.m. To 8 p.m. Wednesday and from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Thursday at the funeral home.

Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to Hospice of Southern Kentucky.

Survivors include his loving wife of 71 years, Roberts Brooks Jackson; four daughters, Imogene Edwards and her husband, Jim of Plano, Texas, and Nellie White, Regina Embry and Dianne Reynolds and her husband Jimmy, all of Bowling Green; a son, Leroy Jackson of Bowling Green; nine grandchildren; 21 great grandchildren; two step grandchildren; a sister, Lucille Wilson of Bowling Green; and caregivers, Rosalie Graham and Minnie Arnold.
