

“Your Mother is Always With You”

Your mother is always with you...

She's the whisper of the leaves as you walk down the street.

She's the smell of bleach in your freshly laundered socks.

She's the cool hand on your brow when you're not well.

Your mother lives inside your laughter.

She's crystallized in every tear drop...

She's the place you came from, your first home.

She's the map you follow with every step that you take.

She's your first love and your first heart break...and nothing on earth can separate you.

Not time, Not space...

Not even death....

will ever separate you from your mother....

You carry her inside of you....

Obituary

Debbie Sue West, a beloved wife, and mother, of Okmulgee, Oklahoma passed away on Tuesday, April 30, 2024 in Tulsa, Oklahoma. She was 64 years old.

Born on September 28, 1959, in Riverside, California, Debbie was the daughter of Jimmie and Carolyn (Taylor) West. Growing up in California, Debbie attended school and began her journey into motherhood. Eventually, she relocated to Oklahoma in June of 1995, where she would begin to build her life and family.

In Oklahoma, Debbie found a new home and the love of her life, Michael Jones. They shared 25 years of marriage filled with love, laughter, and countless cherished memories. Their union was a testament to enduring love and partnership.

Debbie was a determined woman who valued education, earning her associate degree in Business Management eight years ago. This educational achievement paved the way for her successful career in Environmental Control for the Muscogee Creek Nation at the hospital in Okmulgee.

Beyond her professional accomplishments, Debbie had a passion for music, particularly enjoying bands like Metallica. She found joy in the simple pleasures of life, including spending time with her family and her beloved dogs. Debbie had a green thumb and took delight in gardening, as well as working on cars. Her caring nature extended to everyone and everything around her, leaving a lasting impression on all who knew her.

Debbie is preceded in death by her mother Carol Sue West, and her son, John Holbrook and her grandparents, Jimmie Taylor and Donna Ruth Taylor "MaMa". She leaves behind a legacy of love and kindness, cherished by her family: her devoted husband, Michael Jones; daughters, Carol Foster West, Kathleen Holbrook, and Jennifer Jones; along with numerous other loving relatives and many friends.
