Mrs. Davidson's Class

This was our last "normal" week of school for the year! We have next Monday off for the holiday, and next Friday is our last day of school. The last couple of months always rush by in a blur, and everyone is geared up for summer break.

We went to the nursing home on Wednesday, for the last time this school year. The residents were happy to see us again, and the students even learned a new hymn that was requested by one of the ladies.

Our 8th-grader, Gianna, will be graduating this Sunday at 6:00 in the church. She has attended our school since she was in preschool-a total of 10 years! She is excited about attending academy, but will miss her friends here. Have a great long weekend! We are on the home stretch!
