

Paul Fieldhammer was born on February 15, 1943, in Montevideo, MN to Phil and Adell (Germundson) Fieldhammer. He grew up in Sacred Heart, MN where he graduated high school. Paul earned degrees in Biology and German at Augsburg College. He was married to Priscilla Strecker on November 26, 1965, in Villard, MN. The couple was blessed with two sons, Michael and David. They lived in the cities and came back every weekend to their cabin on Lake Darling. Paul was a co-owner of Gibbco Scientific.

After retirement, Paul kept busy repairing computers for friends and neighbors, volunteering at the thrift store, and golfing. He loved his family, and especially treasured the fact that his grandchildren called him "Bups". He was blessed with many friends both in Alexandria and Gold Canyon, AZ.

Paul died on Thursday, March 24, 2022, in Phoenix, AZ at the age of 79. He is survived by his wife, Pris Fieldhammer; sons, Michael (Jennifer Wolf) and David (Robyn); grandchildren, Andrew (Ashley), Erika, Lynnsey (Josh) Klein, Henry, and Lucas Newhouse, plus great granddaughter Emma Grey, daughter of Andrew and Ashley.
