DECORATED

Long ago and far away, in medieval Europe, German families decorated the evergreens outside their homes with shiny red apples on Christmas Eve. They called them “paradise trees.”

Through the years, one tree was chosen and brought inside. Decorations became more and more elaborate. Mothers hid gingerbread cookies in the branches. Nuts dipped in sugar were nestled among the pine needles. Fruits and vegetables formed from marzipan candy hung from the boughs. You could eat most of the ornaments!

The most important ornaments were tiny round wafers of bread hidden among the other decorations. These thin biscuits represented the body of Christ that was broken on the cross for our sins.

Our first graders made darling ornaments this week. Aren't they cute? We are excited for Christmas. We look forward to vacation time, presents, and being with family. Because of Jesus' great gift to us, we all can celebrate forever!

Now thanks be to God for His indescribable gift [which is precious beyond words]! 2 Corinthians 9:15
