Key Concepts for Spiritual Growth

Revelation 4 tells us that John is invited up to heaven for the first time. Here is the general description of the continual worship in heaven in which God the Father is worshipped on account of Creation. On account of a crisis in heaven (Revelation 5) the matter is resolved by the appearance of the Lamb, the God-man Jesus Christ. He is worshiped because He was slain and is our Redeemer, and this fact resolves the crisis in the universe.

NAMES OF GOD

JESUS THE SAVIOR

JESUS IS YAHWEH COME TO EARTH. If you have ever pictured God as a distant, wrathful Being, you will have to reconsider that portrait in light of Jesus Christ, who is God bending toward us, God becoming one of us, God reaching out in mercy, God humbling . Himself, God nailed to a cross, God rising up from the grave to show us the way home. Jesus, name above all names, beautiful Savior, glorious Lord!!

WHISPER

How to Hear the Voice of God The Voice of Gladness ...Sweet Spot

Life is too short not to love what you do, so do what you love. The key is finding the place where gifts and desires overlap. God-given gifts are what we’re best at. God-ordained desires are what we’re most passionate about. And the place where those gifts and desires overlap is the sweet spot. The apostle Paul exhorted us to use our God-given gifts in the pursuit of God-ordained desires. As he identified three traits that should define us as Christ followers:
Generous – It’s going above and beyond the call of duty, the extra mile.
Cheerful - whistling while we work, humming, It’s an A-game attitude.
Diligence – having an eye for excellence, attention to detail, showing care and conscientiousness in everything we do.
