Daddy.....
 Don't think of him as gone away his journey's just begun, life holds so many facets this earth is only one. Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears in a place of warmth and comfort where there are no days and years. Think how he must be wishing that we could know today how nothing, but our sadness can really pass away. And think of him as living in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost and he was loved so much.
 I love you Daddy.
 Love, Twin (La'Nease)

Joseph Burns III

Joseph Burns III, AKA, "JoeJoe," was born in Kansas City, January 14, 1972, to Lacy Burns and Joseph Burns Jr.

JoeJoe was educated here in Kansas City receiving his GED and he worked doing a host of jobs. One job he enjoyed working was at True Faith Outreach Ministries Church with his Aunt Nella. JoeJoe was able to accomplish many goals he set in life.

JoeJoe enjoyed being with his grandkid, he was able to make plenty of memories with them. He was the best grandpa and Joe Joe LOVED to brag about his girls. They really meant the world to him. When he wasn't bragging about his girls, he was out being fly. He loved to get dressed and be the life of the party.
